Pasadena Firemen Stage Annual Fireworks Show

The Rose Bowl will again be the scene of exciting family entertainment on Monday, July 5th, when the Pasadena Firemen stage their 39th annual Circus and Fireworks Show. Fire Captain C. M. Ward, chairman of the annual event, pointed out that because of July 4th falling on Sunday the Circus and Fireworks Show will be held on Monday, July 5th.

The traditional family show was originally designed as a community service to keep youngsters and adults alike from injuring themselves with do-it-yourself fireworks displays. Now the annual Circus and Fireworks Show has become one of the finest family Independence Day activities in the Los Angeles area, and raises funds for more than two dozen charities.

Captain Ward announced that the world famous Polack Bros. Circus featuring a host of internationally renowned circus stars, will begin the festivities at 8:15 p.m. A spectacular fireworks display, titled "The Spirit of '65", will follow as a fitting climax to the celebration of our nation's birthday.

"Miss Liberty Belle," motion picture and television actress Arlene Charles, will act as official hostess. Returning for the second year, after their sensational performance as twin Masters of Ceremonies in 1964, will be KLAC disc jockeys Al Lohman and Roger Barkley.

Captain Ward issued a reminder that many families conclude a family celebration with a picnic.

Serious Fire Averted By Employees

A potentially dangerous fire at the Sierra Madre Machine Co. at 145 E. Montecito was quickly extinguished Tuesday afternoon by the employees and the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department. According to Francis Danielson, foreman of the plant, they had just completed a job working with magnesia and while clearing the machine, some of the very fine magnesium dust settled in the electrical box and exploded.

No one was injured, but the Fire Department had quite a job clearing the building of smoke and determining if the fire was smoldering in any of the electrical wires throughout the plant.

Awards Given July 3

With only three more weeks to go, Sierra Madre Merchants are offering the extreme in coupon purchases before the new awards are given.

In looking them over this week, we find that you can still get a full year's subscription to the News for one buck, cigarettes for only $2.21 a carton; with the 10-20 per cent off on some coupons noted; and in the free department you can receive such items as a package of Lawry's spaghetti mix, one gallon of paint thinner, 2 week supply of vitamins, a free hand painted shell, ball point pen, mouse on the house, personalized travel service; and a free pan and roller.

In this week's coupon page the merchants are stressing the stay at home for the fourth theme that is sponsored by some 17 civic clubs and organizations.

Many of the local service organizations have joined together in an effort to give the community an "old-fashioned" July 4.

Mr. and Mrs. George Yacos New Owners of Pizza Shop

Sierra Madre's only Pizza Parlor changed hands during the past few days when Mr. and Mrs. Brice sold their interest in Mr. Pizza to Mr. and Mrs. George Yacos.

George and Joan immediately changed the name to the Village Pizza and Deli, and although only owners for a few days, set out to make fabulous plans for their new business.

First on the list, of course, will be a complete renovation, then the business establishment will start to take on the village atmosphere with the walls adorned with attractive posters. A new sign soon will be installed telling everyone of their new name.

The next change on their long list is the installation of a complete delicatessen department, with gourmet items to tantalize the taste buds of the most particular, featuring mouth-watering European delicacies.

And, of course, they will maintain the high quality of pizza in great varieties, but will come under the Village names. Of course, all pizzas are created in their own kitchen, but the most interesting is that also all delicacies will be of their own creation, not items made on a production line.

BRYAN SMITH, Award-winning cake decorator; Donna Campbell, "Miss Gold Cup"; George Gugler, superintendent of Ralphs Bakery.

At the 12th Annual Bakers' Forum staged recently at the Ambassador Hotel, by all of the Allied Trades of the Baking Industry of Southern California, Ralphs Split-Top White Bread won the coveted Gold Cup Award, in competition with entries by all major retail and commercial bakers in Southern California. This is the supreme award that any product in this area can receive from the Baking Industry, and is won by only one product in each category. Ralphs also won the top award of the Gold Cup for the Best Novelty Decorated Cake. This cake—except for its decorations, which depicted George Washington Crossing the Delaware—was composed of the same standard batter which is used in all Ralphs cakes distributed through the company's stores. A third Award of Merit was presented to Ralphs for its apple pie.

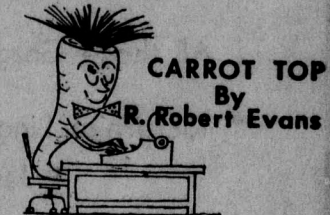

Rescue Team Saves Life Of Girl 5

by BILL WARK

Members of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team were credited with saving the life of a five year old girl lost overnight in the rugged snake infested area some 30 miles southwest of Palm Springs.

Little Mary Ann Maxson, daughter of a Riverside County Deputy Sheriff, wandered away while playing with her brothers on a family picnic, 5 p.m. Tuesday afternoon. Within an hour the Riverside Mountain Rescue Team along with the Palm Springs Mounted Posse were searching for the girl. The Sierra Madreans were called in to aid at midnight.

Happy will be the day when Sierra Madre Estates ceases to be front page news, that it will cease to appear on the agenda of the City Council, and take valuable hours of debate and argument, but this may not happen for quite some time; however we hope the arbitration agreement will do the job.

Now, my interpretation of the council meeting May 15, there has formed a triangle, and anyone knows how nasty and mean a triangle can become. We now have our city administration, councilmen, engineers and all at one point of the triangle... sub-dividers, attorneys, engineers, soil experts and lot purchasers at the second point... at the third point of the triangle is... Committee for a Safe and Beautiful Sierra Madre, attorney, soil experts, geologist, engineers, and a host of citizens.

Each point of the triangle has the solution for correcting any default in the subdivision, however, each solution is decidedly different, and each group, at this point, is stubborn in its desire to correct the situation according to its own wishes.

As the interest rates go on, as the lots come closer and closer to the fall rains, as no planting is being done... we wonder when the end will come and who will be the parties to pay the many, many dollars in damages... from the rumblings this may become a decision of the courts, but somebody is going to be hurt and hurt bad, I am afraid.

Remarks of those who have followed the situation say, "At least the City has learned a great lesson in hillside development," but I ask, really, have they? ... Are some of the same mistakes that have happened in the Sierra Madre Estates now happening in the Carter Tract?

Yes, I have been told, some of the same mistakes are being made, 16,000 cubic yards of dirt being moved around and some of the slopes 1 1/2 to 1... why can't this be stopped at this point? ... I am told that it cannot be stopped until "failure is noted"... In other words, the slopes must come down in buckets of mud, water and debris before the condition can be noted and corrected... of course if this should happen, I am told, the mud, water and debris will just cover the City property in Bailey Canyon... this may be some comfort to some, but who is going to clean it up in Bailey Park?

Indeed, it is all going to be very interesting, costly maybe, but all things are bound to happen, and I am just happy as H... that it is not my neck or skin that is involved in the mess, although as a homeowner and taxpayer I will receive my share at the end.

It really is not my desire to spend a whole column on the Sierra Madre Estates, but I as an individual am so disgusted with the actions of people in this situation that I just must get it off my chest... the vandalism on the tract is far beyond rational human beings.

You can understand why people will steal lumber from the houses under construction... you can understand why they take doors

If you have fine hair it is very likely soft sheened and sleek, but it poses a number of problems of its own. Cold weather loads it with static electricity, heat leaves it limp and you are probably in a never-ending search for props to give it body.

We might suggest frequent washing and cream rinses to provide more body, but we caution against vigorous yanking on shampoo snarls as fine hair is even more fragile when wet. Also, be careful of too energetic brushing and combing which only adds friction troubles.

Fine hair responds nicely to a permanent which is soft and loose and free of frizzing tendencies. This type of permanent . . . as is true of any permanents . . . is properly and expertly given at PETITE BEAUTY SALON, 185 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., phone EL 5-8041 . . . Following the ceremony, a luncheon reception was held at the Ebell Club of Newport Beach for 200 guests. Rosealie Watler, Canoga Park, was in charge of the guest book for the reception, and the decorations were in aqua, yellow and white.

News From Your . . . COMMUNITY HOSPITAL

. . . Sierra Madre

The big white bird with the long legs and the basket orbited over Sierra Madre Community Hospital during the past week and as a result this hospital had its own little population explosion.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cowger of 584 1/2 Buckeye St., Pasadena have welcomed little Hope Denise into their home. She was delivered Sunday, June 6, weighing 7 pounds 3 ounces.

Announcing the birth of their fourth child are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perry, whose home is at 81850 Indian Summer, W. Covina. Their son Craig Alan, who weighed 7 pounds, 5 ounces, at birth was delivered Thursday, June 10. His brothers Robert and Bryan and his sister Deanne planned an initiation ceremony for him when he arrived home.

First time parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Price who reside at 645 E. Lime St., Azusa. Their first born, Michael Troy, was delivered weighing 6 pounds 8 ounces on Thursday, June 10.

Karen Eileen Pannell this week will join her sister Denise in the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pannell, at 2793 Hermanos

St., Pasadena. She was delivered Friday, June 11, with a dainty weight of 6 pounds 15 1/2 ounces.

Delivered Friday, June 11, was John Phillip Kearney V with a robust weight of 9 pounds 15 ounces. His delighted parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Kearney IV who live at 5730 N. Cloverly Ave., Temple City. The Kearneys also have a daughter Kimberly.

Mr. and Mrs. Holbert Magitt of 2496 Lincoln Ave., Altadena, are announcing the arrival of their fourth child, a boy, who was delivered Saturday, June 12. STARS NAB MINOR LEAGUE TITLE

BOB JONES' Stars finished their season with a fine 8-2 record to win the minor league title. The Padres, 7-3, finished second; the Angels, 6-4, third; Seals, 4-6; Mounties, 3-7; and the Colts, 2-8, last.

Results of last week's games found the Angels, rebounding from two straight losses after losing catcher Frank Diemer with a broken leg, defeating the Mounties 10-8 and the Seals downing the Colts 13-8.

DOWN ON THE FARM the Tigers are well out in front with a 7-1 record to 3-5 for the Pirates and 2-6 for the Mets. Last week's scores Pirates 12, Mets 10; Tigers 8, Mets 4.

IN THE MAJORS the Red Sox continue to roll along well out in front with a fine 11-1 record after grabbing a pair of one run wins last week. Lee Skarin's Sox nudged the Orioles 8-7 and the Braves 3-2. Bob Osti's Dodgers are in the second spot with a 6-4-1 mark; the Yankees are 6-5, Orioles 5-7, Braves 4-7 and the Indians trail 1-9-1.

Last week the Dodgers thumped the Braves 12-4; the Yankees over the Indians 10-4, Dodgers 15, Indians 4, and Orioles 4, Yankees 1.

AFTER THREE WEEKS of play in the Babe Ruth League the White Sox and Cardinals are tied up for first at 4-2 while the Senators and Giants have carded 2-5 marks. Looks like a well-balanced league. Cardinals 12, Senators 3; White Sox 14, Giants 4; Giants 6, Senators 4; White Sox 10, Cardinals 6.

PLANS ARE AFOOT to form an intermediate Pony League next year. Little Leaguers are all through at the age of 13 (if their 13th birthday occurs before August 1) and yet in most cases the lads aren't ready to compete with big boys of 14 and 15. Could be that the diamond at La Salle High School will be used. Let's hope that the hardworking gang that handles boys baseball in Sierra Madre will be successful in getting this project off the ground.

LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT DIAMOND DOINGS. . . Baseball is a strange game. Felix Mantilla, a journeyman infielder who couldn't make the Mets team, is a prime prospect to cop the RBI championship in the American League.

WALTER ALSTON is really doing a fabulous job with the Dodgers. It's not what you would call a "fence-busting" crew and injuries have certainly been heavy. Old Hankus still has the feeling the local gang is living in first place on borrowed time.

HEAVEN HELP the Dodgers if anything should happen to Drysdale or Koufax and especially Ron Fairly, who has been Mr. Clutch personified. . . Just think Lou Johnson knocked around the bushes for some 13 years before finding a home in Alston's outfield, or infirmity. He has an infinity for attracting pitched balls to some portion of his anatomy.

Those attending the annual Crown City breakfast were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. William Maxwell, and Mr. and Mrs. David Faller.

Member Frances Brain of Leisure Word has made 12 dolls for the retarded children of Costa Mesa home. Attending the recent Girls State Tea were chairman Orrella Henderson, Lucile Pickett, Edna Faller and Effie Pratt.

Community service reported 221 hours and $17.

A letter from member Rose Galkin of Cranada Hills reported the serious illness of her husband Rudolph Galkin.

Thelma Proctor who served Sierra Madre as Community Chairman for the recent Heart Sunday drive proudly exhibited her beautiful Heart Charm pin as well as her medal from the American Heart Association engraved with the words, "For Meritorious Service." This was because Sierra Madre exceeded its quota, percentage wise, more than any other city in the San Gabriel Valley.

Wandering members, Amy Beisel and Helen Wheeler were welcomed back into the fold. Amy, from a six weeks visit with her son's family in Wichita Falls, Texas, and Helen from several weeks visit in San Francisco.

There will be no meeting on Thursday, June 24 on account of some members attending the state convention in San Diego. Reports will be given at the July 8 meeting.

David Murton Graduates From M.I.T.

David Blair Murton, of Sierra Madre, received simultaneously the degrees of naval engineer, and master of science in naval architecture and marine engineering during commencement exercises at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology on Friday, June 11. Dr. Julius A. Stratton, president of M.I.T., gave the commencement address and personally presented the diplomas to each degree recipient. Dr. James R. Killian, Jr., chairman of the M.I.T. Corporation, presided.

Local Red Cross Chapter Elects Directors, Officers

The Sierra Madre members of the American National Red Cross held their annual meeting and dinner last week at the beautiful Pasadena Chapter House. After a delicious dinner, two groups of most interesting colored pictures were shown — one included a number of pictures taken at the recent Golden Anniversary Tea in observance of the 50 years of Red Cross activity in Sierra Madre, and the other group consisted of scenes of the terrible damage wrought by the disastrous flood in Northern California last winter and some of the relief work done at that time by Red Cross.

The latter group of pictures was taken by our own Ed Mayo while he was on duty in that area for Red Cross during and immediately following the flood. The meeting was then called to order by the chairman, Mrs. Janet Wood, for the purpose of electing directors. Directors elected for a three-year term commencing July 1 were: Mmes. Lawrence Appleford, Richard Barden, John A. Brittain, Harry A. Ferguson, A. E. Gourdeau, J. J. O'Connor, Richard Wizenick and H. Randolph Wood; also Messrs. Dominic Boggio, Robert Duncanson, Joe Grippi and Carl Hobson. Other directors, previously elected, whose terms extend through the next year, are: Mmes. Robert W. Archibald, Henry S. Black, Paul Burton, Carl Eberle, Charles Ellet Jr., Allen Herbert, Richard Law, George W. Lindsay, Harold Pangborn and Richard Ridgeway; also Messrs. Irl Beatty, Carl Brand, Douglas Delahooke and Walter Fader.

Following the meeting of the members, the new Board of Directors met and elected officers for the ensuing year: chairman, Mrs. Richard Law; vice chairman, Mr. Carl Brand, vice chairman and chairman for volunteers, Mrs. Lawrence Appleford; secretary, Mrs. John A. Brittain, and treasurer, Mr. Robert W. Archibald.

Safety Points For Boaters

Summertime means boating time for thousands of Californians. Each weekend, self-styled skippers pack their nautical gear, hook the boat and trailer on the car, and head for any navigable stretch of water.

In an effort to insure a safe and enjoyable voyage, the National Automobile Club urges boating enthusiasts to following these "good sense" trailing tips:

1. Check your auto insurance liability coverage. Protect yourself from a lawsuit should your boat, motor or trailer cause an accident.
2. Use a safety chain, attached from the car's frame to the trailer.
3. Inspect hitch and tie-down straps after a few miles of travel, making certain they have not loosened.
4. Allow extra stopping distance. An automobile pulling a trailer requires much longer to stop. "Remember," says NAC, "the maximum speed limit for trailerized vehicles is 50 miles an hour in California."

Our Share
 The city of Sierra Madre has received $605 as its six-month share of the special fees paid by holders of alcoholic beverage licenses.

Then there's the story of the club reporter who returned to his city editor and said there was no story available about the ship launching he was sent to cover. When questioned by the editor he said, "They couldn't get it to go down the ways, so there was no launching."

New Laws

For Slow Drivers

The National Automobile Club expressed approval recently of newly enacted legislation requiring slow moving drivers to yield the right-of-way when delaying five or more vehicles.

The new law provides that motorists driving at a speed less than the posted limit must move completely off two-lane highways, and to the right-hand lanes of multilane highways whenever five or more vehicles are following, providing it is safe to do so.

NAC believes the law compelling slow drivers to allow cars operating at the prescribed speed to pass will improve the flow of traffic and reduce unnecessary risks by frustrated motorists forced to follow slow moving vehicles.

Take your problems to CHURCH this week -- millions leave them there!

Do you ever feel trapped? Do the walls of a meaningless life seem to close in on you sometimes? Here's good news! Every life has a gate, and it is never locked. But it only opens from one side . . . your side.

Seek for the gate with all your heart, and you will find it. Open it, and you will enter a world full of meaning and beauty. You'll step from darkness to light . . . and never look back.

The key? It's waiting for you in Christ's teachings. His Church will help you to find it, and in His service you will discover life's real purpose. Go to church this Sunday, and hear God's words of promise and comfort. They are meant for all who yearn to widen the cramped horizon of their lives. They are meant for you.

Monday	Psalms	124	1-8

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

THE CHURCH is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

No 'Mandatory' Excuse Accepted

Taxaction Fighting For Reduction In Co. Budget

In a second-day assault on county spending, Taxaction, Inc. which is spearheading a countywide protest at the annual budget hearings, attacked the county's salary structure, addition of thousands of new employees, uncontrolled "anti-poverty" spending, welfare waste and "frill" spending.

George C. Jordan of Altadena, Taxaction's policy committee chairman, opened the second part of his association's presentation, then called on witnesses to speak on specific items.

In his opening statement, Jordan said Taxaction would support a budget increase over last year of $31 million. This he said was the amount made unavoidable by: Abandonment to the county of Los Angeles jail service, the city-county health merger, the $768,000 bill for public defender services presented to the county by a current court decision and by allowance for an increase in the cost of living indices.

Since the proposed budget is $95.5 million over last year's costs, he said Taxaction's committee felt that a reduction from that of $64.5 million was reasonable. He said taxpayers could not accept the excuse that much of the county's spending is "mandatory" because of the charter provisions or legislative action.

First Taxaction witness was Wolcott Hubbell of Pasadena, a retired economist formerly with the U.S. Department of Commerce. Hubbell cited figures from Civil Service reports which he said showed that county employees have about "997 chances out of 1,000 of holding their jobs for life."

Second Taxaction witness was Mrs. Ralph Newman of Altadena, who recently appeared as an expert witness

Reading Club In Operation Starting June 20

The Sierra Madre Public Library Summer Reading Club will go into operation the week after school is out, starting June 21, and will run for the ten week period. Gloria Hinshaw, children's librarian, extends an invitation to all children who will enter the second grade and above next fall. The club will end August 27.

A reading club booklet will be awarded to each child who reads at least one book per week through six weeks of the summer. The booklet portrays the "Feenuts" cartoon characters, one added for each week's reading, and is entitled, "Happiness is a Good Book." Those interested in joining may register starting June 21. Members may meet with the librarian any weekday between 1 and 5 o'clock, the time set aside for the club. The title of his favorite book will be entered in his booklet by the librarian. She will also make suggestions for other interesting books which are in the library.

Members in grades 2 and 3 will need a verbal or written note from the parents who is responsible to verify that the book was read. Mrs. Hinshaw emphasizes that it is especially important for these grades to practice their reading.

Readers in grades 4 and up will discuss their favorite book each week. After this brief discussion with the librarian, she will record it in his reading booklet. His booklet will be returned to his teacher in the fall who will indeed be pleased with his summer of Good Reading!

The Children's Room of the library will be closed every evening during the summer at 6. There will be no change in the adult hours.

This was the largest attendance they have had and was due largely to the ticket selling team leaders Bill Sullivan, Joe Gripl, Doug Delahooke and Cliff Grassly.

The young people of the Walther League will meet on Sunday evening at 6 for a potluck supper and welcome of the new confirmants.

Bible Lesson for This Week Told

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will be the subject of the Bible Lesson to be heard at Christian Science services throughout the world on Sunday. Scriptural passages will include this verse from Isaiah: "I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths they have not known; I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight." The concluding Bible citation is from Revelation: "And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make things new."

The theme will be taken up further in readings from the Christian Science textbook: "The true theory of the universe, including man, is not in material history but in spiritual development ... Spiritual evolution alone is worthy of the exercise of divine power" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, pp. 547, 135).

Myrtle Heasley Returns to S. M. After Vacation Tour of Old Mexico

Back home again after enjoying a vacation tour of Old Mexico is Mrs. Myrtle Heasley of Oakdale Drive in Sierra Madre.

Mrs. Heasley stated, "Nothing could be more enjoyable, more complete or more filled from day to day with new and different sights. We were escorted throughout the trip by one of Greyhound's specially trained bilingual tour escorts. That means we had nothing to do but enjoy every minute of the trip, with no worries about baggage, tipping or how to read the menu. Moreover, it was close to being a book of knowledge on what to see and how best to see it."

Some of the places visited by the tour party included: Chihuahua (farming, cattle and Indians); Durango (stone fences, growing corn and barbecued beef); Guaj najuato (Old World charm, opera house and Castle Saint Celia, built in the 1700's); Mexico City (Floating Gardens, Pyramids, Diego Rivera murals, shopping and ballet); Taxco (silver craft, churches, narrow streets); Guadalajara (glass blowers, pottery, tequila); San Jose Purua (mineral baths in a resort atmosphere); and Mazatlan (renowned fishing port).

According to Mrs. Heasley, "One of the most pleasant aspects of the Greyhound Escorted Tour of Mexico is the friendships formed among the group. Several have made plans for a reunion with some of those with whom we toured, even though they come from many states. There are so many pleasant memories to be shared."

Don't forget — Sunday you can elect the dad of your house "King" . . . You can dash down to the nearest department store and get him something you have been dying to have for a long time like a new set of dishes, or maybe he'd like a new mink-lined Mustang (I'm still waiting for that free sample for the plugs I've been giving that car). Or maybe, he'd be happier if you just left him alone and didn't get him anything that will shrink the family budget any more.

He could have breakfast in bed, if he didn't hate it like the dad in our house. He could sit and read the paper all day with the family paying court serving him refreshments on the hour every hour, or you could fix him a special meal that he loves. Better yet, you could take him out to dinner (I like that idea). Or you can like him know, the way we will, by telling him that we love him and we feel lucky that he belongs to us. We are luckier than most at our house. Our children have their dad and two granddads to love and share this special day.

Anyone can have a farewell party when they go to Europe, but not many people are treated to a "We're Glad You're Home and Tell Us All About It" party. Phyl and Charlie Hardison, Jane and Jim Smith, Nancy and Bob Mueller, and Ernie and myself decided that it would be fun to do just that for Peg and Ken Christianson. They just returned from four exciting weeks of touring around Europe. They flew from here to Montreal and then over to London where they toured the city, shopped, did the great white way and the outskirts of London. Their next port after Oxford was Paris. It is hard to believe it but they had two flat tires in Paris. An almost unheard of fete for a brand new car. I forget to mention they picked up a new Mercedes.

They toured France thru the little back roads, stopping at Versailles. They went thru Germany and although they enjoyed it they had an eerie feeling as they saw the troop movements that were going on in that country. The Norwegian countries were next on the itinerary, then Holland with a view of the last tulips of the season, Edinburgh, and finally London before their return flight to the U.S.

The two of them just spill over with excitement as they relate some of the different things they saw and did. It is easy to enjoy the continent thru their eyes. Those able to attend the party were the Gene Rodes, Charles Goldsworthy, the Joseph Philipsons, the Don Hays, the Don Olsons, the Al Dunns, the Forrest Paxsons, the John Hedricks, the William Baughs, the David Zinsmeyers, the Gordon Wrights, and Cleto Dorsey, and the Warren Bacons.

The party was held at the home of the Charlie Hardisons last Friday eve.

The Phil Shepherds of Villa Heights had a dinner party last Friday night for a group of their out of town friends. Numbered among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McBrien of Newport Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kuhn of Malibu, Mr. and Mrs. LaMar Hart presently of Altadena, but soon to be of Laguna Niguel, and Mr. and Mrs. Cal Mathieu of this area.

Mr. and Mrs. George Holmes of Old House Road also had an evening of friends in for dinner last weekend. Their party included Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. James Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foster, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kearns.

The Warren Clements, the Domonic Giangregorios, the Matt Slavins, and the Alan Stearns spent last weekend in Laguna Beach living it up on the golf course. Happy Birthdays were in order for Pat G. for the weekend too.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Narco-wich are sporting lovely sunstans after a few days down Palm Springs way.

And in the inquiry department. I would like to know who might have a pheasant for a pet in the Villa area. We are used to the quail strutting across the patio as if they owned all they surveyed, but the other morning at breakfast we were treated to the sight of a rather large and colorful pheasant staking out his or her claim on the south forty.

I can't close the column without a word about the Circus party held at the Don Hays home a week ago. The neighborhood is still buzzing about the clever execution of the party. The first indication of the fun to come was the tickets issued that were in the "Admit One" variety. One couple got a little annoyed because they had just turned down some tickets the day before and they arrived in the mail unbidden. They quickly recovered their good humor when they realized their error and knew what fun they were in for.

The Hays had procured a number of authentic circus side show canvases and around these they built a party. The guests were beckoned as they arrived by the sounds of real calliope music and the sight of the knife throwing canvas convinced them they had "arrived." The Hays spared no details to make the entire affair authentic as is possible on a half acre of ground. A bowing clown greeted the guests as they entered the "tent," and the aroma of pop corn poured forth from a real pop corn vending machine. Even the Jim Nichols band that provided the dance music got into the act with some of their tunes. Each lady during the course of the evening won a kewpie doll

United Way Allocates $2,216,396

United Way has allocated $2,216,396 to protect the health of people in the region canvassed last fall by the United Crusade, according to Robert S. Fuller, chairman of the United Way volunteer budgeting committees.

The fund is earmarked to help nine hospitals and clinics, ten visiting nurse associations, and three dental clinic programs for children.

"All of the agencies need help with their operating costs because they treat people who have nowhere else to turn — people who cannot afford private care," Fuller said. "These agencies offer their services, without discrimination, on an ability-to-pay basis."

"Many clinic doctors volunteer their time. No patient ever pays more than the bare cost of the care he needs. And for many the care is part-pay, or free."

Included are California Babies and Children's Medical Center, Cedars of Lebanon Clinic, Children's Hospital Society, Orthopaedic Hospital, Queen of Angels Hospital, Long Beach Children's Clinic, Booth Memorial Hospital, St. Anne's Maternity Hospital, and Resthaven Psychiatric Hospital.

Also the Visiting Nurse Associations of Los Angeles, Glendale, Glendora, South Bay, Azusa, Covina, Pasadena and San Gabriel Valley, Pomona, Whittier, and Long Beach.

Included among the dental clinics are the several branch clinics of the 10th District and 31st District PTA and the Monrovia Children's Dental Clinic.

Two-Week Bible School Starts July 2 At Bethany Church, 93 N. Baldwin

Bethany Church of Sierra Madre, 93 N. Baldwin, will sponsor a two-week Vacation Bible School beginning June 21 and running through July 2. More than 250 children from next year's kindergarten through sixth grade will attend the school conducted by the church's Minister of Christian Education, Rev. Harold A. Ankeny. The theme of the school is centered on "Discovery." Children will "discover" new truth, "discover" ways in which to make their lives worthwhile as they seek to serve the Lord Jesus Christ, and "discover" new avenues of art expression during the exciting craft time.

Over 50 helpers are assisting with the school which begins daily at 9 until 11:45 a.m. Supervisors for the seven grades include: Kindergarten, Clara Groff; First, Lois Ower; Second, Lila Stranks; Third, Marcelle Pollock; Fourth, Barbara Gibson; and Fifth and Sixth, Evelyn Moore. Craft supervisors include Ruth Schilberg and Jean Heidtke. Mr. Bryan Wilhite, the church's recently appointed Youth Minister, will assist in the music and instruction.

The curriculum for pre-school children is a study of David and Paul, with the primary children studying background of ten New Testament people. The juniors will participate in an exhaustive study of the Christian's life in Christ—its beginnings and growth.

Special missionary speakers include Mr. D. T. Dale of Kobe, Japan, and Dr. Merton Alexander from Burundi, Africa. A special missionary project will be a part of the children's sharing experience.

The school is offered free to any child in the community. A special feature of the school is free bus transportation around the perimeter of the city of Sierra Madre. For further information regarding the school, enrollment, or bus schedule, call the church office at 355-1408.

Beware of Oleander Plants They Are Very Poisonous

The oleander plant (Nerium oleander) is an evergreen shrub that is widely used in all the warmer portions of the world. It is a valuable ornamental plant, growing from 15 to 25 feet in height, with a profusion of white, pink or red flowers in summer. The shrub's ability to withstand heavy irrigation or dry conditions makes its use extremely varied and extensive.

For centuries the oleander has been known as poisonous. All parts of the plant are poisonous, even the dried leaves. A child can become severely ill from eating a few leaves. Even the smoke from burning oleander brush affects some persons. The effects of the toxic material are very similar to that of the drug digitalis, and can be treated by a physician.

The vast majority of the two or three hundred thousand known species of plants are not only harmless if swallowed, but represent directly or indirectly the food source of all living animals. However, a small number of these plants may be mildly toxic and a very few can be extremely toxic and even fatal if ingested.

The problem of accidental ingestion of poisonous plants by children is, fortunately, less extensive and smaller than in livestock, for example, many of the ill effects that follow ingestion of certain plants require the swallowing of large amounts of leaves, bark or stems of the plants. Plants that contain substances of strong physiologic action in concentrations that are effective in relatively small amounts are those that represent the chief hazards for children. Such plants are those that contain toxic alkaloids, and toxic glucosides as the oleander.

The ingestion of the decoctions of the oleander has given rise to severe and fatal poisonings. After a latent period of several hours, the patient suffers from severe abdominal pain and violent vomiting and he is covered with cold sweat; the lips, ears and fingertips are cyanotic, the respiration is superficial, the pulse slow and irregular, and blood pressure and body temperature lowered. In severe poisonings, the patient becomes first somnolent and later comatose and may die from respiratory paralysis. In protracted cases, anaesthesias, paresthesias and visual disturbances may be present.

Yellow oleander contains the glucoside, thevetin, which has a digitalis-like action. The ingestion of its decoctions has been followed by vomiting, diarrhea, and cardiac irregularities such as are observed in digitalis poisoning. Occasionally, tetanic convulsions may be observed.

There is no reason, of course, to stop growing beautiful flowers just because some contain poison. The common habit of chewing on a bit of leaf or stalk should be avoided.

Rescue Team

Veteran trackers of the Sierra Madre Team working under adverse conditions found the tiny tracks and followed them. They were hampered by blowing sand which covered the faint tracks and they would circle until they picked them up again. In one of the greatest tracking feats in the mountains of the southland the men were able to cling to the child's imprints for six miles through cactus-studded land.

Two rattlesnakes were disposed of during the search. A little before 8:30 a.m. the trackers heard a weak cry and raced to pick up and comfort the little blond blue eyed girl. She was cold, badly scratched and dazed with fear but otherwise unharmed. Wrapping her in a jacket the rescue men flagged down a U.S. Army helicopter and were transported to base camp.

Mrs. Don Maxson of Eagle Mountain said she thought she would never see her daughter alive again. She hugged and kissed her little girl and the happiest bunch of mountain men returned to their Sierra Madre homes.

Miller, Unruh Join Bills For Helping 'Kids' To Read

State Senator George Miller Jr. and Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh today combined forces in a drive for legislation to prevent the development of early reading problems and to set up pre-school training programs for children from low-income or non-English speaking families.

The two legislative leaders' agreement produced the "Miller-Unruh Basic Reading Act of 1965," originally Senator Miller's measure and the "Unruh-Miller Pre-school Education Act," the Speaker's bill.

Both Miller and Unruh successfully carried through their respective houses programs to help children become competent readers. Under the agreement announced recently, the Speaker will drop his bill in favor of the Senator's. Certain provisions of Assembly Bill 1332 (Unruh) will be amended into the Miller bill (Senate Bill 205).

Miller, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, joined Unruh in sponsoring the latter's pre-school training measure, Assembly Bill 1331. This bill was scheduled for a hearing in the Senate Committee on Governmental Efficiency Wednesday, June 9.

"We strongly believe that by combining the best features of both our programs we will be in a prime position to attack the weaknesses in California's school system," the legislators said. "Our bills should assure that youngsters get off to a good start in school, by emphasizing the skills which they will need the most in the early grades."

The Miller-Unruh reading bill will be amended to include the testing portions of the Speaker's reading bill, and will also insure that the extra stipend to be paid for specialist teachers in reading is paid in one lump sum payment at the year's end. The measure which could eventually receive $30 to $40 million annually in state support would envision the training of "specialist reading teachers" in all school districts desiring to participate in the program.

"The 'shotgun approach' to education is neither the best nor the most economical way to attack the basic learning problem," Miller said. "Reading obviously is the key to learning. S.B. 205 is a sound bill because it will make available to all children — not merely those from certain racial or income groups — the means of preventing difficulty in reading. To benefit from the bill all you have to be is a 'kid' who needs the best possible start."

"With the Speaker as co-author of my reading bill," he added, "I am confident we can look forward to the support of the majority of legislators in both houses."

Speaker Unruh noted that the two-pronged attack on the weaknesses in California's school system which he and Senator Miller had agreed upon has been in development for many years.

"In large measure," said the Speaker, "these two bills represent the results of studies and experiments carried on throughout the nation in numerous school districts. Both the pre-school and the intensive reading instruction approaches have been proven through these experiments to be most effective."

"If we can prepare youngsters from impoverished backgrounds for school at an early age through pre-school education," Unruh continued, "and if we can help them in gaining a thorough familiarity with the printed word through intensive reading instruction, we will have gone a long way toward solving so-called problems of 'compensatory education.' We simply cannot afford to wait any longer on either of these proposals. I sincerely hope that the 1965 Legislature will put theory into practice in both these areas," the Speaker concluded.

Unruh's bill, AB 1331, appropriates $2 million in state funds for the purpose of matching with $6 million in available federal funds to establish pre-school educational centers in low-income neighborhoods. The purpose of these programs will be to ready young children for the school experience.

Miller's bill has passed the Senate and was approved by the Education Committee of the lower house Monday, June 7. The Unruh measure gained Assembly approval several weeks ago and now awaits action in the Senate.

Johnny was writing a composition for school and in the process of doing a little research he said to his mother, "Where did I come from?" Mother replied, why the stork brought you." He asked his grandmother, "Where did mommy come from?" The same reply, "The stork brought her." The same question to his great grandmother about his his gran mother brought the same answer.

So, Johnny started his composition with: "We haven't had a normal birth in our family for three generations —"

Congratulations, Grads

It is graduation time and the Sierra Madre News wants to take this opportunity to express its sincere congratulations to high school and college graduates on their completion of that phase of their formal education. Our very best wishes are especially extended to those local students who have reached this stage.

We hope that these students have endeavored to make the most of the education that has been extended to them at great cost to the taxpayers who have sought to offer them the very best available. It is to their credit that they have had the stick-to-it-iveness to complete this phase instead of joining the ever-increasing army of dropouts.

It would be wonderful if we could say, "Here is the world on a silver platter, plenty of employment for everyone, we have peace in every corner of the globe and things never looked brighter." But this is only wishful thinking on our part and the graduates know, or will soon learn, that there are good times ahead and opportunities to be had. BUT only for those who are willing to work for them and make their way, seeking those things they desire most. Those things that will prove most worthwhile in the long-range plans that they must soon formulate if they are to succeed.

The nation is now engaged in a bitter struggle to hold down the communist advances. Many of the new grads will, before too long, find themselves in the armed forces, either by choice or otherwise, to help this nation preserve the freedom that has permitted them to enjoy a free education and the other privileges that we in this country still have. Others will go on to higher education that, if his choice was wise, will lead him to the forefront of the planners and researchers that have so far kept this nation a leader among all nations.

If the big majority of grads can now take the task ahead in stride and make the most of each and every opportunity then the taxpayer can feel that he has gotten the most for his money. But on the other hand if a large percentage fails to aid this nation in its never-ending struggle to have the very best standard of living, and to stay a nation of free men, then our tax money has gone down the drain for naught.

We say to our local grads, "Take care, and may you find your proper place in life, that will make available to you satisfaction, maturity, and peace of mind in today's fast-paced society."

Independence Day

Independence Day will soon be with us. And many a person will wistfully and nostalgically wonder, "What- ever became of the old-time Fourth of July?"

There are various answers. The urbanization of the country is one. Mobility which, whatever its attractions, makes for family rootlessness is another. The enormous distractions of the present age are still another. And so is a preoccupation with material things which tends to obscure simpler and often more profound virtues.

At any rate, the Fourth our fathers knew was a special and unique observance. It was a happy combination of fun and reverence for the men and principles that make up our rich history. The flag flew everywhere. The speakers' stands in the town squares blazed with bunting, and the bands played patriotic airs. Fireworks exploded endlessly, ranging from the ubiquitous firecracker to stunning set pieces celebrating great events of the past. It was a wonderful day for young and old.

Not the least of its attractions were the fiery addresses, made by well-known public figures of the time. Some of these, needless to say, were of a low oratorical level. But all of them had one thing in common. They paid tribute to freedom, and how it was won, and what was needed to maintain and defend it. The theme was patriotism—dedicated, unabashed. And every listener went away with a little better knowledge of our inheritance as a people, and a little more determination to keep the spirit of the founders alive.

The old-time celebrations will be few and far between this year. But, whatever we do, wherever we go on that day, let us take a moment to think what freedom and independence, in the fullest sense of those words, mean—and let us determine that our heritage shall never be lost.

Total Community Development

A short time ago, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States announced a new program, to which it is giving an all-out effort. It's called Total Community Development and is designed to stimulate businessmen to assume the leadership in developing their hometown or city.

One result of this, the Chamber points out, is that the federal government could concentrate more on international and national affairs and leave local problems to local leaders. In the words of the Chamber's president, "Communities should get themselves in shape to relieve Washington of much of the domestic burden, instead of adding to it by relying on federal aid and guidance in every difficulty."

That is devoutly to be wished—the federal government certainly has enough on its hands, considering the chaotic state of the world, without entering into the affairs of every last hamlet in the country. Beyond that, local people must assume local responsibilities lest the last vestiges of local rights disappear in the maw of Washington bureaucracies.

Businessmen often protest, and rightfully, against an ever-growing, ever-more-powerful, even-more costly central government. The talk needs to be forcefully backed with constructive action. The Total Community Development plan falls into that category.

By H. V. WITTY

Many times asked and seldom adequately answered is the question: What is best for our country today? Basically sound but seemingly forgotten is one answer; that which is best for the 43 million youngsters now attending our public schools who very soon will be governing our nation.

The new federal aid to education bill, a measure which, of its kind, is unprecedented in scope, cost, and purpose, is now law.

Surely no one can still believe the hollow argument that the federal government will subsidize any domestic activity without controlling it.

If the government supplies the money for any type of program and has nothing to say about when, where, and how the activity is to be carried out, then the government is spending taxpayers' money irresponsibly — just handing it out without any interest as to what is being done with it. If, on the other hand, the government "supervises" the expenditure of the money it supplies for the program or activity, the government must necessarily control the when, where, and how.

If this is true, then it would appear that we have accepted the premise that Big Brother Socialism is absolutely necessary.

It remains to be seen how much further the government will go in its invasion of the educational world — and what effect it will have on local responsibility and authority. But, looking at the statistics, it is difficult to see what need there is for the federal government to play a Big Brother role in the educational scheme of things.

In the last decade the Chamber of Commerce of the United States reports spending on public schools increased 157 per cent while enrollment rose only 43 per cent. About 95 per cent of the increased spending came from local and state taxes and bond and only five per cent from the federal government. Every sign indicates that during the coming years states and communities will have the resources to meet educational needs and demands.

Federal aid to education, on a big scale, is simply part of the trend toward giving more and more authority to the central government. It is a trend that is gradually and surely destroying the traditional concept of the division of powers and responsibilities among governments.

Since my own school district is toying with federal aid to education and many others have either bowed to its concept or are about to do so, I feel it my duty to set forth some of the ramifications facing you as taxpayers and individuals should your various school boards decide to go, or are going, in this direction. The core of the President's education program, as incorporated in S 370 and by far its largest part, authorizes close to $1.2 billion in federal funds to be allocated annually among public school districts in 95 per cent of the country's 3,100 counties. A federal grant-in-education of this magnitude which is to be distributed to almost all school districts from coast to coast must be regarded as a government subsidy requiring much stricter supervision by the Office of Education than did any of its predecessors. It DOES NOT make money available for the general purposes of the school, for construction, for teachers' salaries, or for specified curriculum subjects, but directs that the funds be used for certain children, namely, those from low income families.

To justify a major federal program of this type it would have to be proven that the present school authorities — state legislatures and boards of education — are either UNABLE or UNWILLING to discharge their responsibilities.

About a dozen years ago the public school faced an unprecedented and seemingly insuperable task: to accommodate the tidal wave of postwar babies who were about to swamp inadequate educational facilities throughout the country in ever-growing numbers. We know now that that tidal wave put an additional 15 million children in the public schools and boosted their enrollment by 55 per cent over the past 12 years. Nothing like this had ever happened before or is likely to happen again in the foreseeable future.

Most students of school finance in the early 1950's thought that prompt enactment of a massive federal aid program was the school's only salvation.

Now let us see what happened in the public schools over the past ten years, from the school year 1954-55 to 1964-65. Pupil enrollment grew from 30 million to 42.9 million, or 43 per cent. Revenues grew from $8.5 to $21.8 billion, or 157 per cent. At least 95 per cent of the $13.3 billion increase in school funds was supplied by state and local governments which still account for all but four per cent of the public school support.

The number of classrooms grew from 983,000 to 1,549,000, or 58 per cent. The instructional staff grew from 1,115,000 to 1,789,000, or 55 per cent. The number of pupils per classroom dropped from 30.5 to 27.6. The number of pupils per teacher dropped from 26.0 to 23.9.

It took, indeed, a deep and abiding faith in the wisdom and judgment of the American people and in the workings of the democratic process to force that by voluntary action, in tens of thousands of communities and through thousands of bond and tax elections, the parents, taxpayers, and voters would boost school support at more than twice the rate of growth in their income or personal consumption. This disproves the critics who have been heaping scorn upon the American people for indulging in personal luxury while starving the schools and other public services. The record of school support in the postwar period stands as a magnificent testimony to the workings of the free local governments in the United States.

off the hinges and steal them . . . you can understand why people steal things, mostly because they want them for themselves or want to sell them . . . but . . .

—CT—

The things we cannot understand is why they would throw rocks at windows and break them . . . why they would take a sharp instrument and mar the beautiful cabinet work in the homes . . . why they would go to the bathroom on the floors . . . why they would come prepared by bringing their own paper . . . then not being satisfied with having committed this atrocity, but take further steps, by taking a stick and smearing their waste material on the newly plastered and painted walls . . . this we do not understand from civilized persons.

—CT—

All of these acts have been committed, not once, but many times . . . and the only thing that I can say is . . . God help the person or persons found on the properties . . . guilty or not, they may receive the brunt of all acts . . . therefore, it is my suggestion . . . stay off of private property unless in company of the owner . . . As usual in closing this column, I will leave you with his bit of humor . . . "The Supreme Court rules that a shaving cream commercial showing how to shave a piece of sandpaper was deceitful . . . Miss Clara Sykes is known in Red Cross as the epitome of precision and accuracy, and was publicly commended in a letter from Treasurer C. W. Jones of the local Red Cross. In the last drive, Miss Sykes handled and kept all the records of the cash, $13,546, that was collected. Of this amount 65.2% went to the National Red Cross and 34.8% was retained in Sierra Madre.

Not much has been heard from Julian LaLone of late, but word comes from Warrington, England, that V E Day found T/Sgt. LaLone of Sierra Madre on the job helping to ready more planes and equipment for immediate action wherever they might be needed

The finale of the school year was the last assembly when Mrs. Wheeler's 6th and 7th grade classes presented the school with a beautiful silk California flag to be placed on the stage of the auditorium, and a check for $90 was given by the 8th grade to be used in purchasing flood lights for the auditorium stage.

If there is a child in Sierra Madre who doesn't know how to swim before the end of this summer, it won't be the fault of the Kiwanis Club or the Canyon Plunge. Arrangements have been made for free swimming lessons at the pool every Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, according to Jim Heasley, proprietor, and the Kiwanians have pledged themselves to pay the admissions of all boys and girls whose families cannot afford to do so.

The Chicago Daily News under the date of June 5, acclaimed Lee Shippey's latest book, "Where Nothing Ever Happens," as most outstanding. Having been published in January, the book is still receiving comment throughout the country and it continues to be a best seller.

Letters To the Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

Thank you for your recent telegram on Senate Bill 998 (Rees), Rapid Transit.

Subsequent to being passed by the Senate, this bill was drastically amended to include provisions of another bill which has been held in a Senate Committee.

Senate Bill 998 is currently pending in the Assembly Transportation and Commerce Committee, and your comments on it should be referred to Assemblyman Tom Carrell, chairman of that committee.

—RANDOLPH COLLIER
State Senator,
Chairman Committee
on Transportation

Dear Editor:

Open letter to my fellow Americans: Relax! Go back to sleep! Everything's fine!

L.B.J. wants to reason. He said so! Quote, "Come and let us reason together." So, don't rock the boat. Be reasonable! Believe me, the rest of that verse, (Isaiah 1:18), doesn't mean a thing!

— D. HOLT

P.S. The entire verse (for the benefit of you who read the paper on a bus), is: "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." See — I told you — doesn't mean a thing.

Dear Editor:

They should charge admission to get in. Ours is the only town-hall meeting in the country where the City Councilmen would buy a ticket at the door to watch the audience put on a show!

If it weren't so pathetic, and so disruptive to a sincere and hard working group of Councilmen, it would be fun to watch. I mean the onlookers who turn into circus clowns; and the fatuous who glory in the sound of their own voices.

You get the popcorn and crackerjack booth, C.T., and I get first dibs on the limo and suture concession. We'll make a fortune.

I doubt if there has ever been a batch quite like the Citizens for a Safe and Beautiful Sierra Madre!

Their revolving hysterical harrangues before the Council, and their repeated snickers, snorts, hisses and boos throughout the meetings, when they DO sit down, are shades of a giggling gang of high-schoolers out behind the bleachers peeking at Playboy Magazine. Now they are picking fights — not verbal — physical.

Appears as though the good councilmen are going to have to take the bull by the horns and conduct the necessary city business without regard for this power hungry band of sophomores in the peanut gallery, or what has to be done would not be .

I'd say the Safe and Beautiful have earned a change of name. They act more like the SICK and BALEFUL. Are there any decent, constructive people in town who care to show up at future meetings and get solidly behind their City Council? Up till now the local nuts in the audience have had things all their own way.

— STIFFBAK

FLOURNOY REPORT

A last minute jam of bills, the confused revenue picture, and the still unsolved problem of Senate reappointment has plunged the California Assembly into a state of high confusion as it races to complete its business before the closing deadline Friday at midnight.

Under what seems to be the worst closing pressure in years, most legislators are beginning to conclude there must be a better way of conducting California's business.

I wholeheartedly agree.

A case in point is the Assembly day of June 8, the last day for consideration of lower house bills, when we actually "legislated" a 48-hour day.

Buried in an avalanche of some 300 bills, members of the lower house ordered the sergeant at arms to disconnect the clock. While the clock in the Assembly chamber stood at 11 p.m., June 8, the time in the "outside" world advanced to 11:30 p.m. June 9.

Having worked until 2:45 a.m., the previous night and numb from lack of sleep, the legislators pressed on through the morning, afternoon, and night, voting on hundreds of measures which would have a profound effect on every Californian.

As the hours dragged on, one began to wonder whether we were in sufficient command of the situation to completely understand all the measures before us.

Actually, this extraordinary "day" was required by a very sound and logical legislative rule: that each house has a terminal date for voting on its own bills, so as to leave the balance of the session for acting upon measure originating in the other house.

I most certainly do not quarrel with this rule; but I am convinced that some better system can be worked out for the management of our legislative business.

Certainly, the enactment of California law calls for an atmosphere more conducive to careful and prudent judgment. Legislative reforms must be a first order of business before the next general session.

Mother Installs Daughter As President
Of Arcadia Woman's Club June 9th

LEFT MRS. HARRY R. LAUBER, daughter and Mrs. Helen Jewell Keith, mother, who was installing officer.

Mrs. Harry R. Lauber was installed as president of the Arcadia Woman's Club on Wednesday in one of the most impressive installation ceremonies of the season.

Mrs. Helen Jewell Keith of the California Past President's Club, Marina District, was the installing officer for her daughter, Mrs. Lauber, and her 12-member board.

Both Mrs. Keith and Mrs. Lauber have long been active in club life in Southern California. They are members of the First Century Families and former residents of Sierra Madre for many years. The new president is also a City Commissioner of Arcadia, a charter member of Alpha Epsilon, Arcadia unit of the National Association of Parliamentarians, and is a member of the Arcadians.

An exquisitely appointed formal tea followed the ceremony with past presidents and board members presiding at the tea urns and hostessing the gala occasion. Mrs. Frank H. Smith, second vice president, was the reception chairman. Mrs. William Greenway is the new first vice president.

Birthday Party For Sweeney Sons

Saturday, June 12, Kevin and Stephen Sweeney, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Sweeney of 160 Colony Drive, were feted at a birthday party at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stender Sweeney of Pasadena.

The birthday guests, who numbered 35, were Anokaia schoolmates and family friends. The boys' maternal grandmother, Mrs. Douglas B. Ryan Sr. of Arcadia, and their great aunt, Mrs. Ogden Crane of Hollywood, joined the festivities, as did their aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Paul Pentent, Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Schneiders and Dr. and Mrs. Douglas B. Ryan.

The guests were invited from 3 to 7 p.m., during which time they enjoyed swimming and tennis and games, the finale being entertainment by Mr. Clown of Los Angeles, who provided the small guests with music, treats and tricks.

Following a barbecue supper, the evening was climaxed with the opening of presents and the traditional ice cream and cake.

It has been said that one of the cigarette companies has a special deal going for churches: Any church for 5000 coupons from the back of their cigarette packs can get a free case of lung cancer for every member of their congregation.

New Show Opens At Ice House

Salem, Missouri used to be a noisy place on Saturday night with banjos and baths spilling out all over the place. It's quieter now since The Dillards "hitched up the back porch" and moved West.

They'll be shuffling into the new Ice House in Glendale June 15-27, knocking audiences dead with their musical artistry and wildly amusing antics. Apart from being acclaimed by many as the finest bluegrass group in the country, audiences have been known to leave a show of The Dillards with smiles of smug superiority. The blame for this unique feeling rests squarely on the round shoulders of Rodney Dillard. Observing Rodney in action, you just "gotta feel superior," according to Mitch Jayne, bass player and spokesman for the group.

Supporting The Dillards is comedian - satirist Gene Farmer, urbane, sophisticated, man-about-town and slightly sloppy dresser. Gene is a man mostly unknown in Southern California club circles, but not for long. Gene's material, delivered in an offhand, homespun manner, has delighted audiences from The Hungry 1 in San Francisco to The Blue Angel in New York to the Gulf Stream waters to the ribbon of highway.

Supporting Gene who is supporting The Dillards who are usually supporting Rodney are three jolly and musical gentlemen entitled The New York Folk Trio. They are the purveyors of contemporary folk music in these parts and have been known to purvey some of the wildest songs and whimsical humor around.

All will be at The Ice House, Glendale, through June 27.

Plans Approved For Road Work

County supervisors recently approved a highway project for the improvement of California Boulevard between Vallombrosa Drive and Michillinda Avenue in the West Arcadia area. Included in the project is the improvement of the Huntington Drive - Rosemead Boulevard intersection.

Bids for the project, designed by the County Road Department, will be opened by the board on June 29, Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli said. Construction is scheduled for completion in November, 1965.

The work will consist of reconstructing and widening the existing minimum two-lane roadway to provide a fully curbed 64-foot wide roadway between Vallombrosa Drive and Michigan Boulevard. The improvement between Michigan Boulevard and Michillinda Avenue will consist of a fully curbed divided highway

Must Have Republican Governor

Retard Spending Processes And Avoid All New Taxes

Assemblyman Howard J. Thelin, 43rd A.D., recently voiced his opposition to the $4.13 billion state budget and the Unruh tax adjustment bill, both of which passed the Assembly this week.

Thelin also reiterated his determination to vote against any new or increased taxes to finance the budget.

"By reducing all spending programs to some extent, by charging tuition at our State Colleges and State University, by raising licensing fees where they are unrealistic and diverting special funds monies where needed into the general fund, we could finance the budget for 1965-66 without raising taxes," Thelin declared.

"These alternative measures which I have suggested would call for a temporary halt to the increase of some beneficial state programs. However, I believe the State of California would profit tremendously if we could hold off tax increases for another 12 months," he added.

Thelin credited activity by the Republican Caucus of the Assembly for the $21 million slash from the budget bill. "While I think the reduction is too little, the Governor claims it is too much. This reveals the spending impetus dominating the present administration," he said.

The Unruh billion dollar tax adjustment program would bring more than $300 million a year into state coffers, the Assemblyman stated. This would just encourage all kinds of new spending schemes, he said.

"While the present fiscal condition of the State will require some tax increase in the immediate future, I think it is important to retard the spending process by avoiding new taxes for the next fiscal year," Thelin stressed.

"Among other things, the Unruh plan would raise the income tax rate for the highest incomes to 15 per cent, would reduce personal having four traffic lanes and two parking lanes. Included in the work will be the construction of curb gutter, pavement, and highway drainage structures. In addition, traffic control signals will be installed at the California Boulevard - Rosemead Boulevard intersection and the street lighting system, within the limits of the project, will be upgraded.

The improvement at the Huntington Drive - Rosemead Boulevard intersection will consist of reconstructing the intersection by lowering the roadway grade to provide a more uniform roadway cross section and modifying the traffic control signals, Supervisor Bonelli said.

"The completed project will provide for a capacity of 32,000 vehicles per day and will correct the roadway structural and drainage deficiencies of this Master Plan Highway connecting the Pasadena and Arcadia areas," Supervisor Bonelli emphasized.

GOP Alliance To Organize

Leaders of the much talked about Republican Alliance of Southern California announced an intensive organization and membership drive in the greater Pasadena area this week. Organized in January of this year by some 25 area chairmen from George Murphy's successful campaign team, the 500 member Alliance is now organizing in over 40 southland communities.

Directing the greater Pasadena area drive is W. Jack De Stories, GOP State Committeeman and Alliance membership chairman. Assisting in the GOP Alliance membership drive are Edessa Rose, area vice chairman for the Nixon for Governor finance committee in 1962 and Helen Wysong, GOP from the 54th District. Both are Alliance directors.

Leading area Republicans serving on the Republican Alliance Advisory Board include: Pat Hillings, former GOP County chairman; State Assemblyman Houston L. Flournoy; Bert Stolpe, president of the Foothill Freeway Association; Howard Hawkins, Metropolitan Water District Director, and others.

Mike Costello, Pasadena Realtor-Appraiser, serves as Alliance treasurer. Alliance chairman Robert L. Jenkins serves as an executive for a San Gabriel insurance company.

Letters to the Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE: Resignation has been received by the City from C. A. Barkmeyer, director of Public Works to become effective July 1. Mr. Barkmeyer resigned his position to take up his appointment as Director of Public Works and Utilities for the City of LaPalma, located near Buena Park. The Barkmeyers will continue to live in Sierra Madre for the time being, and offer the following letter to all of their friends and associates: Dear Editor:

Now that I have submitted my resignation from my position as Public Works Superintendent of this City to accept, what I hope and expect to be a more satisfactory position elsewhere, I would very much like to assure everyone interested that I have decided to take this step after long and serious consideration and with very much regret.

I like to take this opportunity in the first place to thank my personnel, co-workers and fellow citizens from the bottom of my heart for your cooperation, understanding and personal friendship.

If I ever was considered successful in any area during my employment by the City, I most certainly realize that I could not have accomplished anything without your assistance, goodwill and loyalty.

To those I have failed in any respect I like to offer my sincere apologies for my shortcomings with the assurance that I always tried to be impartial in carrying out my functions with the best intentions for the welfare of the City and its citizens in mind.

May I extend my best wishes for the future to all of you in particular and to the City of Sierra Madre in general.

Taxpayers Ask County For $64½ Million Budget Cut

Taxpayers from all parts of the county staged their first "taxbuster" Thursday, June 10, in protest against their first billion dollar budget.

The keynote statement, delivered Thursday afternoon by a spokesman for Taxation, Inc., called for budget reduction by $64½ million. It pointed out that county taxpayers are about to be hit with a $4 BILLION (correct) Tax Bill when the taxes for schools and special districts are added to the county taxes. This is an amount about equal to the budget for the state of California.

Taxation which had been asked by other property owners associations to spearhead the attack, is a countywide, non-profit, non-partisan organization chartered under state law to combat ruinous taxation.

Taxation's opening statement, to be followed with more detailed comments this week, was made by George C. Jordan of Altadena, chairman of the association's countywide policy committee. Jordan also presented the organization's president, James C. Yancey of Pasadena, for an introductory statement.

Jordan cited major areas of spending which are "seriously hurting taxpayers as: Payroll increases, full spending, welfare, court procedures and capital projects.

It also contained a sweeping indictment of other tax-paying bodies and groups both above and below the county level, for their responsibility for "confiscatory" taxation. It emphasized that the supervisors were responsible for only a quarter of county tax bills but pointed out that nevertheless they have a decision-making role to play in preserving home owning as a way of life.

PEPTONE

by Deedee & Alice

There's nothing like having a real ball while strengthening international relationships at the same time; but the Mods are probably doing just that. This group is actually composed of six different boys from very different backgrounds. They are English, German, Polish-American, Japanese-American and American-American. Sound like a junior United Nations? Could be, but I doubt if politics is their chief concern.

Joseph Bremmer is the 20-year-old German who plays the piano and writes most of the group's songs. He especially likes Hamm's beer and cute girls, not necessarily in that order. Some of the songs he has turned out are titled "I Love You," "Never Know," "Yorkshire Blues," and "Black Lace."

The British are still very much in demand: Norm Clarke and Lenny Kallock respond accordingly. These two young Englishmen are great friends, although they sound somewhat opposite.

Norm has sandy-blond hair and brown eyes, and he plays bass guitar, while Lenny is the blue-eyed saxophonist who loves colored T-shirts and hates to dress up. Drummer Steve Warhol and lead guitarist Steve Takauchi are both 17; and they too, are both slightly opposite. Steve Warhol is the brown-haired brown-eyed Polish-American whose counterpart Steve Takauchi is the Japanese-American with black-haired and brown-eyed and goes in for flashy things.

Jim Solo is the red-blooded American and rhythm guitarist of the Mods, who, unlike his five friends, prefers the Beatles to the Rolling Stones. His personal tastes run to suede and tweed.

Together with their different backgrounds and own personal likes and dislikes, these boys make up a pretty colorful group. Their hair is somewhat longist, their accents significant, and their sound is wild. Each one in himself is not what makes the band great, but actually an integral part on the whole. Which is just the way it should be.

Want to know something about your favorite singer or singing group? Send a postcard to Deedee and Alice, c/o the Sierra Madre News, Sierra Madre.

The fire chief has said, "The man who insists on smoking in bed in a cinema to make an ash of himself sooner or later."

The spelling words for the class were: defeat deduct, defense, and detail. When little Johnny was told to use them in a sentence he came up with, "Defeat of deduct went over defense before detail."

Of course every one knows that a paradox is two doctors.
